

Instead, the undersigned will again order the parties to file proposed scheduling orders. A proposed scheduling order may be filed jointly or separately, and should include: a description of what, if any, discovery either party seeks to conduct, and a deadline for such discovery; a proposed deadline for dispositive motions to be filed; and a proposed ready date for trial.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the STAY of this matter is hereby LIFTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties shall file Proposed Scheduling Orders on or before September 14, 2018.

The Clerk of Court is directed to send a copy of this Order to the Claimant, who is appearing pro se, by certified U.S. Mail, return receipt requested.

SO ORDERED.

Signed: August 27, 2018

David C. Keesler
United States Magistrate Judge

